

SANDLOTTERS ARE PREPARED FOR CAMPAIGN

The Office of Public Buildings and Grounds has its hands quite full with applications, and from indications there will be more baseball here than ever before.

So far many teams have lined up in the Times' Amateur Directory. Many games have been arranged and played thus far, despite the rather poor weather. A week or two of hot weather will bring the old fever out again.

Leagues May Hold Off.
The leagues may not join the association under its present system. There may be a falling off of league baseball, but it is certain that there will be many games all the while. Washington has but twelve diamonds in Potomac Park.

In addition, there are but three other places in the city limits that can be utilized for games. What appears to be holding the circuits up is available space on which to play.

Those in touch with the situation maintain that by May 1 ten leagues will be in operation and more than 400 teams, including the various schoolboy circuits.

MARINES DROP ONE.
Navy Yard Marines dropped a 7-to-6 game to the Motor Transport Corps team of Camp Meigs yesterday. Bellis, of the losers, fanned twelve and allowed six hits. Fielding failures lost for the Marines.

REX LADS LAND IT.
The Rex Athletic Club had no trouble in walking off with an 11-to-2 practice game against the Young Men's Hebrew Association ball team at Union League Park yesterday. The Rex lads were ahead all the while.

CARPENTIER IS AGAINST $3,000 A WEEK ON TOUR
CHICAGO, April 14.—Georges Carpentier, French heavyweight champion, cannot see a salary of $3,000 a week for an American tour. The Frenchman, through his manager, Francois Dancamp, has declined such an offer. This news came in a letter received here today by Jack Curley.

MEETS ALEXANDRIA.
Western travel to Alexandria tomorrow to play the high school team there.

LISTS RANDOLPH-MACON.
Central has listed a game with Randolph-Macon College at Ashland, Va., for Saturday.

VICTORY LOAN TERMS PLEASE WALL STREET
NEW YORK, April 14.—"The terms of the Victory loan seem to have been well received in Wall Street," said Secretary of the Treasury Glass, who was in the Federal Reserve Bank here today.

"This is a source of gratification to me. This will be the last public drive that will be made by the Government for fresh bonds. I am very hopeful as to the outlook for subscription to the issue, and it should be over-subscribed."

TO SETTLE WACO STRIKE.
With building at Waco, Tex., at a standstill because of a strike in the building trades, the Department of Labor today assigned Commissioner Joseph S. Myers to the dispute.
